Breaking the Ice

Before your next meeting, answer at least five questions
Share your answers and think “What more would I like to know about this new colleague?”

What was your favorite college class?
What was your first job?
Did you grow up in a small town or a big city?
If you could only eat one food for the rest of your life, what would it be?
What is your favorite thing to cook or bake?
If you could invite three people (living or dead, fictional or real) to dinner, who would they be?
If you could meet someone from the past who would it be?
What is your favorite children's book?
What was your favorite cartoon to watch when you were a kid? Or sitcom when you were a teen?
What fictional invention (from TV or movies) would you most like to see come true?
If you could go anywhere in the world where would you go?
Where is your favorite place you have been?
If you could go back in time, what year would you travel to?
What is your favorite snack?
If you could be any animal which one would you prefer to be and why?
What is your favorite all-time movie?
If you had to be stranded on a deserted island with one book which book would you want that to be?
If you could be any character in any book, which one would you be and why?
What would you name the autobiography of your life?
What songs are included on the soundtrack to your life?
Would you rather read an e-book or a print book?
What is your favorite book, tv show, and/or movie?